

I signed up for the 'do not call list' both state wide and federal because I do not want telemarketing calls so why would you want to weaken either? You want to do some good, then stop the telephone companies from taxing multiple times on the same bill and coming up with fancy names for new charges. We get charged for a long distance service we do not use then taxed on top to boot !!